AGREEMENT

My possession of this permit certifies that I am 18 years of age or older, a non-commercial user, and I will only occupy this cabin once in a 30 day period. I have read the cabin information and understand I will be using a rustic and possibly remote cabin. I agree to leave the cabin clean and orderly, and am responsible for any damages to the cabin, associated facilities or Refuge resources caused by me or members of my party. I am aware of the normal dangers and hazards associated with backcountry travel in Alaska.

Thank you for your interest in Kenai National Wildlife Refuge.

Cabin Rules, Regulations, & Permit Conditions

1. Registration and accountability for use of recreational cabins will be limited to non-commercial users 18 years of age or older. A cabin permit holder or named cabin occupant may only reserve that cabin once during the same 30 day period.
2. Reservations may be made up to 180 days in advance.
3. Use of cabins is limited to 7 consecutive days regardless of season. A permit day begins at noon and ends at noon the following day. You may begin using the cabin at noon of the first day of your permit.
4. Cabin users may obtain commercial transporter services such as air or water taxis for transportation but may not be accompanied by guides. Commercial visitor services permit holders are not authorized to occupy cabins. Contact Kenai National Wildlife Refuge for a list of permitted transporters.
5. Occupancy of public use cabins without a permit (for reservation cabins) or registering (first come – first serve cabins) is prohibited. You must have your permit with you while using a reservation cabin.
6. Tent camping within 600 feet of public use cabins is not allowed, unless they are members of the party using the cabin.
7. Campfires will only be authorized in an established metal campfire ring provided by the Refuge at the cabin site. Only dead and down trees may be cut for firewood. No cutting of standing trees is permitted.
8. All food items, garbage, and other personal items must be packed out and not left in the cabin or cabin area. Leaving food or refuse available to wildlife or feeding wildlife is prohibited, and violators will be prosecuted.
9. Cabin users must comply with all Refuge public use regulations and State of Alaska and federal boating, hunting and fishing regulations. It is your responsibility to become familiar with these regulations.

Please call the Kenai National Wildlife Refuge for Refuge specific regulations. (907) 262-7021 or visit the Refuge Website at <http://kenai.fws.gov/>

Note:

Unauthorized use of these cabins is a violation of Federal laws and regulations 50CFR 36.33 (b), (c). Violations should be reported immediately to a Refuge officer. (907) 262-7021
